Bouwnce Terms of Service

Effective date: 03/03/2026

These Terms of Service ("Terms") are a legally binding agreement between you and Bouwnce Innovations Limited, a company registered in Nigeria with its office at 19B, Hon. Pete Ibida Street, Awka, Anambra, Nigeria ("Bouwnce", "we", "us" or "our"). They govern your use of the Bouwnce website, mobile app, AI-powered search, chat, events, storefronts and any related services (together, the "Platform"), and any text, photos, messages, events, listings or other material on it ("Content").

By creating an account or using the Platform, you agree to these Terms, our [Link to Privacy Policy] and, if you open a storefront, our [Link to Storefront Terms].

Summary of Key Terms

Please read the full Terms, but here are the main points:

- You must be 16 or older to use Bouwnce.
- You are responsible for what you post and do. Follow these Terms, our Community Rules and Nigerian law.
- Stay safe when meeting people. We don't run background checks. Meet in public and never send money to people you meet on Bouwnce.
- You own your content. You give us a licence to display it on Bouwnce so the service can work.
- Don't misuse the Platform. No scraping, hacking, bots, fake accounts or attempts to manipulate our AI.
- We can enforce these Terms. We may remove content or suspend accounts that break them.
- Bouwnce is provided "as is". Our liability is limited as far as Nigerian law allows.
- Nigerian law applies, and disputes are first resolved informally, then through mediation or the Nigerian courts.

1. Who May Use Bouwnce

You may use Bouwnce only if you are at least 16 years old, can form a binding contract with us, and are not barred from using the Platform under any applicable law. If you use Bouwnce on behalf of a business, school, organisation or government body, you confirm that you have authority to accept these Terms on its behalf, and "you" includes that entity.

2. Privacy

Our [Privacy Policy] explains what personal data we collect, how we use and share it, and your rights under the Nigeria Data Protection Act (NDPA) 2023. By using Bouwnce, you understand that your data will be processed as described there, including by service providers that may be located outside Nigeria.

3. Your Account

- Give accurate information, including your real name and a genuine photo of yourself.
- Keep your password secure and do not share your account. Use a strong, unique password. You are responsible for all activity on your account.
- Do not create more than one personal account or impersonate anyone.
- Tell us at [team@bouwnce.com] immediately if you think someone else has accessed your account.
- We may send you service messages, such as security alerts and changes to these Terms. These are part of the service, and you can't opt out of them. You can control marketing messages in Settings.
- If you change your phone number or email, update your account so we don't contact someone who later gets your old details.

4. Early Access

Bouwnce is in Early Access. Features may be incomplete, change, or be withdrawn, and you may encounter bugs. Your feedback is welcome, and by sending it you allow us to use it to improve Bouwnce without any obligation to you.

5. Content on Bouwnce

You are responsible for the Content you post, send, create or share, including profiles, messages, events, listings and what you type into our AI search, and for making sure it complies with these Terms and the law. Only share what you are comfortable with others seeing.

Content on Bouwnce comes from users, organisers and businesses, not from us. We do not endorse or guarantee the accuracy, safety or reliability of any user Content, and you rely on it at your own risk. You may come across Content that is inaccurate, offensive or misleading. Please report it.

We may remove or limit Content, or restrict accounts, that break these Terms or our Community Rules, infringe someone's rights, or put users at risk. If you think your own work has been copied without permission, report it to [team@bouwnce.com].

6. Your Rights in Your Content

You own your Content. By posting it on Bouwnce, you give us a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide licence to host, store, copy, display, adapt (for example, resize or format) and share it on the Platform, in our communications about Bouwnce, and with service providers that help us run it. This licence lets the Platform work. For example, it lets us show your profile in search results and display your events to others. It ends when you delete the Content or your account, except where others have already shared it or we must keep it by law.

You confirm you have all the rights needed to post your Content and grant this licence.

7. Community Rules

Bouwnce is for genuine connection. You must not:

- Harass, bully, threaten, stalk or intimidate anyone
- Post hateful, violent, sexually explicit or discriminatory content
- Scam, defraud or ask other users for money, including fake jobs, loans, investments or "doubling" schemes
- Send spam or unsolicited advertising
- Share someone's private information without their consent
- Create fake profiles, events or listings, or impersonate any person or organisation
- Promote illegal activities, goods or services

You can block and report any user, event or content.

8. Meeting People and Attending Events

Bouwnce helps you connect with people and discover events, but we do not run background checks, and we are not responsible for how users or organisers behave, online or offline. When meeting someone or attending an event, meet in public, tell someone you trust where you are going, arrange your own transport, and never send money to people you meet on Bouwnce. In an emergency, call 112.

Events are created by users and organisers, not by Bouwnce unless clearly stated. Organisers are responsible for their events' accuracy, safety, legality and any fees, and Bouwnce is not responsible for cancellations, changes or incidents at events.

9. AI-Powered Features

Our AI search and recommendations suggest people, events and opportunities based on what you share and how you use Bouwnce. Suggestions may be inaccurate or unsuitable, so use your own judgement before connecting or meeting anyone. You are responsible for what you type into our AI features and must not use them to find, profile or target people for harm.

10. Additional Features and Terms

Some features have extra terms. If you open a storefront, our [Link to Storefront Terms] apply. If we introduce paid features, separate payment terms will apply. If additional terms conflict with these Terms, the additional terms apply to that feature.

11. Your Licence to Use Bouwnce

We give you a personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable licence to use the Bouwnce app and Platform for its intended purpose, in line with these Terms. The Bouwnce name, logo, design, software and other features (excluding user Content) belong to Bouwnce Innovations Limited and are protected by law. You may not use them without our written permission.

12. Misuse of the Platform

You must not, or help anyone else to:

- Access the Platform except through our app, website or official interfaces
- Scrape, crawl or collect data or user information from Bouwnce by automated means without our written permission
- Use bots or scripts to create accounts, send messages or post content
- Probe, scan or test our systems for weaknesses, or bypass any security or access controls (security researchers should report issues to support@bouwnce.com instead)
- Copy, modify, reverse engineer or decompile our software, except where the law expressly allows
- Attempt to manipulate, "jailbreak" or inject prompts into our AI features to override their safety controls or extract other users' data
- Upload viruses or malicious code, or overload, flood or disrupt the Platform
- Misuse our reporting tools, for example by filing false reports

13. Ending These Terms

You can end this agreement at any time by deleting your account in Settings > Your Account > Delete account. Our [Privacy Policy] explains what happens to your data.

We may suspend or close your account, or stop providing all or part of the Platform to you, if we reasonably believe that you have broken these Terms, created risk or legal exposure for Bouwnce or other users, acted unlawfully, or left your account inactive for a long period. Where appropriate, we will tell you why by email or in the app. If you think we made a mistake, you can appeal at support@bouwnce.com.

team@bouwnce.com

Sections 5, 6, 12, 14, 15, 16 and 17 continue to apply after your account is closed.

14. Disclaimers

Bouwnce is provided "as is" and "as available". To the fullest extent allowed by Nigerian law, we make no promises that the Platform will be uninterrupted, error-free or secure, that any Content or AI suggestion is accurate, or that any user, event, organiser or business is safe or trustworthy. You use the Platform at your own risk.

15. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent allowed by Nigerian law, Bouwnce and its directors, employees and partners will not be liable for:

- Any indirect, incidental, special or consequential loss, or loss of profits, data or goodwill
- The conduct or Content of any user, organiser or business, online or offline
- Losses arising from meetings, events or transactions between users
- Unauthorised access to your account or data that results from your failure to keep your login details secure

Our total liability to you for any claim is limited to the greater of ₦[50,000] or the amount you paid us, if any, in the six months before the claim arose. Nothing in these Terms limits liability that cannot be limited by law, such as for fraud.

16. Indemnity

You agree to compensate Bouwnce for any claims, losses or costs, including reasonable legal fees, arising from your Content, your breach of these Terms or the law, or your dealings with other users.

17. Governing Law and Disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. If you have a dispute with us, contact [support@bouwnce.com] first, and we will try to resolve it within [30] days. If we can't, either party may refer it to mediation or arbitration under the Arbitration and Mediation Act 2023, seated in [Lagos/Awka], or bring it before a competent court in [State], Nigeria.

18. General

- Changes: we may update these Terms. For significant changes, we will give you at least [30] days' notice in the app or by email, except where changes are needed for legal reasons or new features. Continuing to use Bouwnce after changes take effect means you accept them.
- Severability: if any part of these Terms is found unenforceable, the rest remains in effect.
- No waiver: if we don't enforce a right immediately, we haven't given it up.
- Entire agreement: these Terms, together with our Privacy Policy and any additional terms, are the whole agreement between you and Bouwnce.
- Language: these Terms are written in English. If we translate them, the English version applies.
